REQUEST A TOUR

Small by design. Personal by nature.

Golden Age Senior Living offers non-medical residential care and supervision in two small Alameda homes licensed for a combined 14 residents.

Our smaller setting helps us learn each resident's routines, preferences, personality, and changing support needs - while giving families clear, direct communication.

Support tailored to daily needs

- Mobility & transfers
  Walker, wheelchair, extensive assistance, and mechanical-lift needs when appropriate.
- Dementia support
  Individual review for Alzheimer's disease, memory changes, confusion, and safety needs.
- Personal care
  Help with bathing, dressing, grooming, toileting, and incontinence care.
- Hospice coordination
  Coordination with an outside hospice agency when required conditions are met.
- 24-hour supervision
  Ongoing non-medical care, observation, and family communication in a small-home setting.

Every resident is assessed individually. Services depend on the person's needs and applicable licensing, staffing, fire-clearance, hospice, documentation, waiver, and regulatory requirements.
